

The Rekohu Experience

The Henga Lodge experience can include forest and beach walks, relaxing by the fire or exploring the island landscapes. Tours can be arranged for visits to the ancient tree carvings, fishing, hunting, horse treks, diving, scenic flights to Pitt Island, and bird watching, or take a relaxed bus tour around the island's many attractions.

Finding Us

Located 800 km to the east of New Zealand, Rekohu (Chatham Islands) is a magical destination, promising memorable experiences.

Air Chathams has flights throughout the week from Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch and Napier.

Kōpinga Marae

Henga Lodge is owned and operated by Hokotehi Moriori Trust and offers the opportunity to experience our indigenous Moriori culture as part of your stay on the island.

Moriori settled Rekohu 800-1000 years ago and established a unique culture based on a sustainable relationship with the environment and a commitment to peace. The Moriori covenant of peace remains the longest enduring peace tradition in the world and a beacon of hope for today.
